

Martock Players and Pantomime Society will be marking the centenary of the end of World War One with a production entitled

“Return from the Poppy Fields”

The show will be performed in

Martock Parish Hall

on

4th 5th and 6th October 2018

The Show will depict scenes from the battlefields, as well as at home in South Somerset and will include music from 1914-1918, as well as contemporary songs which reflect the mood of the time.

We invite anyone who is interested, to join us in bringing this show to the stage. We would particularly welcome men of all ages to be in the battlefield scenes as well as anyone (male and female voices) who enjoy singing.

We will be rehearsing on Mondays from 9 July and additionally on Thursdays from 9 August 2018
