Dog control at Millennium Wood

The management group therefore propose that the PC does not hold a Parishioner consultation exercise at present but instead:

1. Agrees the wording of a "code of conduct" for dog walkers, using one derived from the Woodland Trust model, viz.:

1. Our dog-walking code of conduct

- Ensure your dog is trained in basic recall. If not, please keep them on a lead at all times.
- If your dog is off the lead, please keep them in sight and under control.
- Be respectful of other wood users, including other dogs. If the dog approaching is on a lead, put yours on a lead too. Ask people for their consent before allowing your dog to approach them.
- Stick to paths when walking your dog to protect precious ground flora and tree roots.
- Clear up after your dog and put waste in the bin provided.
- If the weather's warm, please provide your dog with water

1. This has the benefit of explaining what "UNDER CLOSE CONTROL" means. Thanks to Amanda for this suggestion.

2. Agrees the design, purchase and installation of a di-bond sign to replace the existing one and to include the above wording. A second could be installed at the Recreation Ground if required.

3. Invites Parishioners to report any dog related issues to the PC, perhaps through the village website, email or in writing, giving details of incidents such as times/days, dog breed, problem, names.

4. Collates the issues raised over the course of 12 months to review if problems have increased, decreased or stayed the same.

5. Reviews progress in 12 months to see if further changes or a Parishioner consultation exercise is required.

MODEL FINANCIAL REGULATIONS FOR LOCAL COUNCILS

This Model Financial Regulations template was produced by the National Association of Local Councils (NALC) in April 2024 for the purpose of its member councils and county associations. Every effort has been made to ensure that the contents of this document are correct at time of publication. NALC cannot accept responsibility for errors, omissions and changes to information subsequent to publication.

Notes to assist in the use of this template:

- 1) This document is a model for councils of all sizes to use to develop their own financial regulations, suitable for the size of the council and the activities it undertakes.
- 2) Bold text indicates legal requirements, which a council cannot change or suspend.
- 3) For the rest, each council needs to adapt the model to suit its size and structure. For example, some councils have both a clerk and RFO, possibly with several more staff, while others have a single employee as clerk/RFO. Some councils have committees, some have a high level of delegation and some make all decisions at full council meetings. Many now use online payment methods, but others still rely on cheques.
- 4) Curly brackets indicate words, sentences or sections that can be removed if not applicable, or amended to fit the council's circumstances. An example of this is the phrase {or duly delegated committee}, which can be deleted if there are no committees.
- 5) Specific areas that may need adapting:
 - a) In 1.5 – is the Clerk the RFO?
 - b) In 3.3 and 3.4, the words “Governance and Accountability” do not apply in Wales
 - c) In section 4, does the council have committees and how many years are forecast?
 - d) In 5.6, does the council issue an open invitation to tender, or invite specific firms?
 - e) In 5.9, are online prices acceptable evidence?
 - f) In 5.13, 5.15 and 5.17, does the council have committees?
 - g) In 5.16, will a councillor ever be instructed to place an order?
 - h) In 5.20, is there a minimum level for official orders?
 - i) Section 6 includes several alternatives to cover delegation to committees or to officers, approval of invoices individually or in batches, or for approval of regular contractual payments at the beginning of the year.
 - j) Sections 7, 8 and 9 also includes several alternatives, including wording for where the clerk is a signatory. These are intended to allow a council's financial regulations to fit what they actually do, not to force any council to change what they do.
 - k) Section 10 gives two alternatives, with or without petty cash.
 - l) 13.6 has alternatives for VAT-registered and unregistered councils – only use one.
 - m) 13.7 and 13.8 are removable if they don't apply to the council.

- n) Much of Section 16 can be deleted if not applicable.
 - o) 17.3, is the Clerk the RFO or will the RFO consult the Clerk?
- 6) Square brackets indicate where the council needs to specify who, or how much, or what the timescale is. For example [£500] might need to be £100, or [October] might need to be November, or [the council] might need to say the Policy and Resources Committee.
- a) In 4.1 and 4.7, select the wording for England or Wales, based on your location.
 - b) In Section 4, the council needs to determine the timescale for its budget setting.
- 7) It is challenging to try to offer guidance on setting financial limits. A council spending £1,000 a year is unlikely to delegate authority to spend £500 to its proper officer, but one spending £5 million a year might regard £5,000 as a reasonable limit. Each council needs to determine its own limits, that help, rather than hinder, its operations.
- 8) Key limits to set:
- a) In 5.6, at what limit will the council require a formal tender process to ensure fair competition, rather than just asking for quotes? If this is set too low, it may discourage suppliers. Many small councils might only use formal tenders once every few years.
 - b) In 5.8, at what limit will the council require fixed-price quotes rather than estimates?
 - c) In 5.9, at what level can smaller purchases be made without competition?
 - d) In 5.15, at what level can purchases be made under delegated authority (having complied with the rules about obtaining prices)?
 - e) In 5.18, how much can the clerk commit to spending in an emergency?
 - f) In 6.9, can payment of invoices (for purchases that have already been authorised) be authorised by an officer under delegated authority as a general principle, or only to avoid problems?
 - g) In Section 9, what are the limits for card payments?
 - h) In 16.5, what value of assets can be bought or disposed of, without seeking council approval?
- 9) The contents list is a table that extracts section headings from the document. It can be updated by clicking on the contents list, whereupon a tab saying “update table” appears at the top of the list.
- 10) Once this model has been tailored to fit the council’s needs, the resulting Financial Regulations (with the insertion of the council’s name at the top) should be adopted at a meeting of the full council. The date of adoption should be inserted below the Contents. Any subsequent proposal for amendment should also be made to the full council.
- 11) The council should keep abreast of developments in legislation that affect the local council sector and should review and update its Financial Regulations annually.
- 12) Please ensure that the latest approved version is published on the council’s website.

- 6.7. ~~{A copy of this schedule of regular payments shall be signed by {two Councillors/members} on each and every occasion when payment is made - to reduce the risk of duplicate payments.}~~

 - iv. Fund transfers within the councils banking arrangements up to the sum of [£10,000], provided that a list of such payments shall be submitted to the next appropriate meeting of council [or finance committee].
- 6.10. The RFO shall present a schedule of payments requiring authorisation, forming part of the agenda for the meeting, together with the relevant invoices, to the council {or finance committee}. Been working on the church this week and have noted how bad the entrance to the car park has become.

The back edgers are collapsed on both side and the kerb across the middle is moving and will only get worse.

Pictures and video attached.

As we were discussing, it really needs the kerbs to be splayed back on both sides (as per rough sketch) then people can't drive on and damage.

Could we discuss at next meeting please.

Inspection Scope for RPII Annual Inspectors

This document outlines the RPII scope for inspections undertaken by the Inspectors listed as Annual Inspectors on the RPII Register of Inspectors when undertaking Indoor Annual, Outdoor Annual, Outdoor Operational and Outdoor Routine inspections.

Inspections are undertaken with reference to the standards listed in this preamble only; where no date for the standard is given it will be the standard that is current at the time of inspection except where overlap periods are granted by the standards committee when standards are updated. The information contained in reports is provided to assist the owner/operator in fulfilling their responsibilities as detailed in the relevant standard. Other standards referenced within the listed standards do not form part of the inspection, unless they are also explicitly listed here.

The following standards are relevant to all installations of equipment that are publicly accessible to users; this includes public parks, pay and play parks, schools, nurseries, public houses, holiday parks, indoor play centres, farm parks etc. All equipment used or employed in publicly accessible areas should meet with the requirements of the relevant standards (listed below):

BS EN 1176 Parts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10 & 11 Playground equipment intended for permanent installation outdoors & indoors.

BS EN 1176 Part 7 - 'Guidance on Installation, Inspection, Maintenance and Operation' (this document gives guidance to the owners/operators of the facility on the installation, inspection, maintenance and operation of playground equipment, excluding ancillary items).

In the United Kingdom the National Foreword forms an important part to the understanding and implementation of the recommendations set out in this document. It clarifies the application of the document within the UK as best practice guidance, as the document has been used since its initial publication. Therefore, in the UK this standard (BS EN 1176 – Part 7) contains no requirements and needs to be read and implemented as guidance, with the use of the term 'shall' therefore becoming a recommendation, as in the term 'should'.

Domestic play equipment falls outside of the scope of BS EN 1176 and has its own standards (BS EN 71 series – Safety of Toys). Where domestic equipment can be identified this will be acknowledged in the report but any comments concerning compliance will follow the requirements and recommendations of BS EN 1176.

When water play items, including spray parks, are inspected any comments concerning compliance within the inspection will refer to EN 1176. We have not assessed these against the requirements of EN 17232 (Water play equipment and features).

Other equipment that is not clearly identified as unsupervised or domestic (natural play, self-build equipment etc.) will be assessed for compliance with the relevant standard listed below:

- BS EN 15312 Free access multi-sports equipment
- BS EN 14974 Skateparks
- BS EN 16630 Permanently installed outdoor fitness equipment
- BS EN 16899 Parkour equipment (plus RPII/API guidance notes)

Annual and Post Installation inspections will take into consideration compliance with these current standards, and defects related to wear and vandalism. Items not listed in the report have not been included in the inspection. The inspection will cover the playground equipment and the active area (that area which is obviously part of the playground), nominally up to three metres around, the fence line if closer, or other areas as agreed.

Operational inspections only take into consideration defects related to cleanliness, equipment ground clearances, ground surface finishes, exposed foundations, sharp edges, missing parts, excessive wear (of moving parts) structural integrity, wear and vandalism. Routine visual inspections relate only to the most obvious defects such as broken or missing parts, litter, vandalism and issues created by severe weather conditions (the intention is to identify hazards created by storm damage).

All inspections are non-dismantling, non-destructive and do not include any structural, toxicology or impact assessments defined in the standard; however, the inspector will undertake a manual test for stability and if equipment fails under manual load, or any other hazard is identified as an unacceptable risk, the owner/operator will be notified as soon as practicably possible.

The inspector will access all reasonably accessible equipment and will assess all reasonably accessible parts above the standing surface. Where it is not possible to access parts of the equipment without employing an alternative means of access the report will record the action required by the owner/operator to ensure the continued safe use of the equipment.

Ancillary equipment will be assessed using the inspector's knowledge and experience of the standards named in this document. (Note: Ancillary items are not included in the specific equipment-type parts of the EN 1176 series; hence they are not assessed for compliance with EN 1176 series and are subject to a general safety assessment).

The owner/operator is responsible for the overall safety of the equipment and area.

The inspector will not undertake any of the following works unless specifically agreed in writing at the time of order:

Checking the depth and underlying structural integrity of any surface areas and/or carrying out any testing of the impact attenuating properties of any surfaces; the identification of any corrosion, rot or other deterioration in any apparatus or equipment other than by an external inspection; the inspection of any equipment (or part thereof) that is beneath the playing surface (loose-fill materials may be moved to expose foundations); tightening any bolts, hinges or other fixing devices on any apparatus or equipment; assessing or inspecting any electrical installations contained on any site and/or apparatus and/or equipment; assessing or inspecting any water supplies and/or water features and/or any associated computerised systems (including carrying out any programming); where planting or trees are mentioned in the report no assessments of toxicity, suitability or condition are undertaken – the owner/operator should have suitable inspections provided by a competent person.

The owner/operator should have a 'design risk assessment' provided by the manufacturer/designer of the area for the equipment and location in which the facility is installed.

The operator is responsible for managing risks of their provision and is required by law to carry out a 'suitable and sufficient assessment' of the risks associated with a site or activity. This inspection shall be considered as contributing to the operator's discharge of this responsibility.

The details contained within the report are a snapshot of the condition at the time of inspection only and subsequent events may affect the condition of the facility. Suggested remedial actions are based on the knowledge and experience of the inspector and/or that of the inspection company. The owner/operator should always seek the advice of the manufacturer or a competent person when undertaking repairs and/or modifications to equipment.

The operator is responsible for following the guidance of the relevant standards. The standards give guidance on the installation, inspection, maintenance and operation of the various types of facilities. The inspection guidance is listed in Table 1, with an indication of which parts will be included in an RPII Annual or Post-Installation Inspection. The relevant standards also contain additional parts which the operator should follow.

NB: The clause numbers in table 1 are taken from BS EN 1176 - Part 7:2020. The content is equally applicable to all other relevant standards listed herein. Playgrounds contain a range of equipment from different manufacturers and installed over a number of years; operators should implement any guidance provided by the manufacturer. Item specific detail is not readily available to RPII Playground Inspectors, whose report contributes to the operator's overall Annual Main Inspection as detailed in the relevant standards.

[1] A manual test only is undertaken for stability. Wear and instability are only detectable where readily apparent without dismantling or destruction and without the use of tools, excavation or specialist equipment. Rot and corrosion are tested or with a hammer and/or steel rod. Decay in timber may exist which can only be found with specialist equipment.

[2] Only the visible condition and dimensional compliance of surface extent is considered. Neither testing of impact attenuating properties nor measurement of the thickness of bound surfaces are undertaken on RPII annual inspections.

[3] The inspection assesses compliance where this can be tested on site using manual methods without dismantling, destruction and without the use of tools or specialist equipment.

[4] The operator should use manufacturer's recommended parts, or equivalent. We are unable to verify if such parts have been used, and any subsequent change in quality or performance.

[5] Visible glass fibres will be noted in reports. The operator is responsible for repairs or replacement.

6.4 The Customer shall pay each invoice submitted by the Supplier:

6.4.1 within 30 days of the date of the invoice; and

6.4.2 in full and in cleared funds to a bank account nominated in writing by the Supplier, and time for payment shall be of the essence of the Contract.

6.5 All amounts payable by the Customer under the Contract (including any App Licence Fee) are exclusive of amounts in respect of value added tax chargeable for the time being (VAT). Where any taxable supply for VAT purposes is made under the Contract by the Supplier to the Customer, the Customer shall, on receipt of a valid VAT invoice from the Supplier, pay to the Supplier such additional amounts in respect of VAT as are chargeable on the supply of the Services at the same time as payment is due for the supply of the Services.

6.6 Without limiting any other right or remedy of the Supplier, if the Customer fails to make any payment due to the Supplier under the Contract by the due date for payment (Due Date), the Supplier shall have the right to charge interest on the overdue amount at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum above the then current Royal Bank of Scotland Plc's base lending rate accruing on a daily basis from the Due Date until the date of actual payment of the overdue amount, whether before or after judgment, and compounding quarterly.

6.7 The Customer shall pay all amounts due under the Contract in full without any deduction or withholding except as required by law and the Customer shall not be entitled to assert any credit, set-off or counterclaim against the Supplier in order to justify withholding payment of any such amount in whole or in part. The Supplier may, without limiting its other rights or remedies, set off any amount owing to it by the Customer against any amount payable by the Supplier to the Customer.

6.8 The Supplier may in its sole discretion withhold the release to the Customer (including via the Web System and/or App System) of any Inspection Report until such time as payment for the relevant Services has been received by the Supplier in full in cleared funds from the Customer.

6.9 Without limiting or affecting the Supplier's rights pursuant to the EULA, the Customer's use and access to the App System is conditional at all times on the receipt by the Supplier of the annual App Licence Fee.

7 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

7.1 All Intellectual Property Rights in or arising out of or in connection with the Services shall be owned by the Supplier (or its licensors as applicable).

7.2 The Customer acknowledges that, in respect of any third-party Intellectual Property Rights, the Customer's use of any such Intellectual Property Rights is conditional on the Supplier obtaining a written licence from the relevant licensor on such terms as will entitle the Supplier to license such rights to the Customer.

7.3 All Supplier Materials are the exclusive property of the Supplier.

8 CONFIDENTIALITY

A Party (Receiving Party) shall keep in strict confidence all technical or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, processes or initiatives which are of a confidential nature and have been disclosed to the Receiving Party by the other Party (Disclosing Party), its employees, agents or subcontractors, and any other confidential information concerning the Disclosing Party's business or its products or its services which the Receiving Party may obtain. The Receiving Party shall restrict disclosure of such confidential information to such of its employees, agents or subcontractors as need to know it for the purpose of discharging the Receiving Party's obligations under the Contract, and shall ensure that such employees, agents or subcontractors are subject to obligations of confidentiality corresponding to those which bind the Receiving Party. This clause 8 shall survive termination of the Contract.

9 THIRD PARTIES

9.1 In carrying out its obligations hereunder the Parties acknowledge that the Supplier is acting only for the Customer and the following shall apply:

9.1.1 the Supplier shall not be required to take instructions in relation to an Inspection Report from anyone other than the Customer or its authorised representatives;

9.1.2 each Inspection Report is produced for the Customer and no-one other than the Customer shall be entitled to rely upon the content of any such Inspection Report; and

9.1.3 the Customer is permitted to disclose the Inspection Report to any third party although such third party shall not be permitted to rely on it.

9.2 Each Inspection Report shall be subject to a Disclaimer and the Customer undertakes and agrees that it shall not remove or vary, or permit the removal or variation of, the applicable Disclaimer without the Supplier's prior written consent.

9.3 If at any time the Customer discloses or provides a copy of any Inspection Report or part thereof to a third party it shall:

9.3.1 not alter or vary the content of such Inspection Report or its Disclaimer;

9.3.2 take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Disclaimer shall not be removed from any Inspection Report; and

9.3.3 prior to or at the time of such disclosure notify the relevant third party that it is not entitled to rely on the Inspection Report and that the Supplier shall not be liable to the third party (whether in tort, by statute or howsoever arising and whether or not arising out of negligence on the part of the Supplier) in respect of any inaccuracy, error, omission, unfitness for purpose, defect or inadequacy of any kind whatsoever in the Inspection Report.

10 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

10 Nothing in these Conditions shall limit or exclude the Supplier's liability for:

10.1.1 death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or the negligence of its employees, agents or subcontractors;

10.1.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or

10.1.3 breach of the terms implied by section 2 of the Supply of Goods and Services Act 1982 (title and quiet possession).

10.2 Subject to clause 10.1:

10.2.1 the Supplier shall not be liable to the Customer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for:

(a) any loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the Contract;

(b) any losses (including loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss) arising as a direct or indirect result of the use of any third parties by the Customer who are recommended by the Supplier to the Customer (e.g. to carry out specialist works such as the testing of impact absorbing properties of surfaces);

(c) any liability as a result of any failure on the part of the Supplier to carry out Services on any specified or agreed date.

10.2.2 the Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Inspection Report will be based on a physical inspection by the Supplier based on the RPII Inspection Scope at the time and/or date specified in such report only and that accordingly the Supplier shall not be liable to the Customer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise for any matters which arise in connection with any damage and/or deterioration in the condition of any apparatus and/or equipment and/or any other areas inspected and reported on by the Supplier following such time and/or date;	13.1.2	The Supplier shall not be liable to the Customer as a result of any delay or failure to perform its obligations under this Contract as a result of a Force Majeure Event.

10.2.3	the Supplier's total liability to the Customer in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the Contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall not exceed the higher of:	13.1.3	If the Force Majeure Event prevents the Supplier from providing any of the Services for more than two (2) weeks, the Supplier shall, without limiting its other rights or remedies, have the right to terminate this Contract immediately by giving written notice to the Customer.
	(a) the total price charged to the Customer (excluding VAT) for the provision of the Services pursuant to the Contract; or	13.2	Assignment and subcontracting:
	(b) the amount which is accepted and paid in cleared funds to the Supplier by its insurers under or in connection with any claim or claims made by the Customer against the Supplier.	13.2.1	The Supplier may at any time assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights under the Contract and may subcontract or delegate in any manner any or all of its obligations under the Contract to any third party or agent.
10.3	In carrying out any inspection of a site and/or apparatus and/or equipment for a Customer the Supplier shall not carry out and/or be responsible for any matters which are not specifically included in the RPII Inspection Scope.	13.2.2	The Customer shall not, without the prior written consent of the Supplier, assign, transfer, charge, subcontract or deal in any other manner with all or any of its rights or obligations under the Contract.
10.4	Subject to clause 10.1, the Customer shall not be entitled to rely on the contents of any Inspection Report and the Supplier shall not be liable to the Customer on any account whatsoever until payment has been received by the Supplier in full in cleared funds for the relevant Services. Further, until such time as payment has been received by the Supplier in full in cleared funds for the relevant Services from the Customer, the Customer shall not be entitled to use the Inspection Report nor disclose the contents of the Inspection Report to any third parties nor make any representations (whether implied or actual) that any equipment and/or apparatus operated or owned by the Customer has been inspected and/or certified by the Supplier.	13.3	Notices:
10.5	Except as set out in these Conditions, all warranties, conditions and other terms implied by statute or common law are, to the fullest extent permitted by law, excluded from the Contract.	13.3.1	Any notice or other communication required to be given to a Party under or in connection with this Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the other Party personally or sent by prepaid first-class post, recorded delivery or by commercial courier, at its registered office (if a company) or (in any other case) its principal place of business, or sent by fax to the other Party's main fax number.
10.6	The Customer is strongly advised to maintain a hard paper copy of each and every Inspection Report for a minimum period of 20 years from the date of each such report. The Supplier shall not be under any obligation nor shall it be liable under any circumstances for any failure to supply the Customer with any replacement or further copy of any Inspection Report.	13.3.2	Any notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been duly received if delivered personally, when left at the address referred to above or, if sent by pre-paid first-class post or recorded delivery, at 9.00 am on the second Business Day after posting, or if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed, or if sent by fax, on the next Business Day after transmission.
10.7	This clause 10 shall survive termination of the Contract.	13.3.3	This clause 13.3 shall not apply to the service of any proceedings or other documents in any legal action. For the purposes of this clause and subject to clauses 13.3.1 and 13.3.2 above, "writing" shall not include e-mails and for the avoidance of doubt notice given under this Contract shall not be validly served if sent by e-mail.
11	TERMINATION	13.4	Waiver:
11.1	Without limiting its other rights or remedies, each Party may terminate the Contract with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other Party if:	13.4.1	A waiver of any right under the Contract is only effective if it is in writing and shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. No failure or delay by a Party in exercising any right or remedy under the Contract or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor preclude or restrict its further exercise. Yeovil, UK

Funding available for good causes in the Yeovil area

Charities and community groups in Yeovil and the surrounding South Somerset area are being invited to apply for funding of up to £9,600 from the Prime Foundation.

The Prime Foundation provides investment in communities where Prime (a health and care property developer) has built new facilities. When a project completes, Prime donates a proportion of its profits to the Foundation, ensuring that the funds benefit local initiatives and groups.

Prime has been working alongside Somerset NHS Foundation Trust to deliver a new diagnostics centre at Yeovil District Hospital. As a result of this project, Prime has donated funds to the Prime Foundation, to be distributed to support one or more projects in the Yeovil and district area.

Projects in Yeovil have previously benefitted from Prime Foundation funding. In 2018, Friends of Ham Hill received funding to enhance the visitor experience at Ham Hill Country Park. The funding delivered a children's adventure trail activity leaflets, encouraging families to explore the park together. The South Petherton Community Shed also received a grant, allowing them to invest in new power tools, enabling the group to work on larger projects and support members of all abilities.

To be eligible for a Prime Foundation grant, a cause must align with one or more of the charity's aims and objectives: to advance education outside of the classroom, promote good physical and mental health, and enhance social wellbeing through recreation.

Hannah Cashmore at the Prime Foundation said: "By investing in causes which make a tangible difference, we aim to enhance lives in the Yeovil area. We look forward to learning about the great projects being delivered locally and find out how we can offer support through grant funding."

For more information and details on how to apply, visit www.primeplc.com/prime-foundation. Eligible postcodes and application guidelines can be found on the website.

Subject: Climate Adaptation Plans for your community - Somerset Wildlife Trust

We invite parish councils and community groups to come together with Somerset Wildlife Trust (SWT) and co-create a Climate Adaptation Plan for your area. Parish councils are the backbone of community life around Somerset, and so your support in this process (titled Act to Adapt) would motivate communities to collaborate in adapting Martock, Ash, South Petherton, Stoke Sub Hamdon, and Kingsbury Episcopi to increasing climate risks.

The Act to Adapt process begins with a public workshop (the 'Talk' stage), allowing locals to learn about their climate risks and share their priorities for the community. In the past, identified priorities have been adapting to flood risks, protecting green spaces, and increasing community communication systems. We hope you can join us at the George Inn, Martock on the Tuesday 19th November (6:30-9:00pm) to ensure that your community is heard throughout this process; this is a free event funded by the Somerset Rivers Authority and there will be cake (flyer attached)!

From the workshop, SWT will create a draft Climate Adaptation Plan and showcase this at events to involve more local thoughts on the plan (the 'Shape' stage). Finally, we will hand over the Climate Adaptation Plan to your communities, along with a shared £1000 to kick start action in the plan (the 'Act' stage).

For more information, check out our webpage, which has our current Climate Adaptation Plans for Glastonbury, the Poldens, Minehead, and Burnham-on-Sea & Highbridge:

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to get in touch, otherwise save them for the 19th and share your thoughts in person.

Every year we ask our communities and businesses about the level of precept (council tax contribution) for the fire and rescue service. This consultation is open now until midday on 26 November.

We would like to hear from as many people as possible across Devon and Somerset to better understand our residents' views. Please can you complete the online survey and share this with your networks. Should you or anyone else be unable to complete this online please call 01392 872354 and leave a message with your name and number. Please see attached a poster for you to display if there are any appropriate places, or please include in any timely newsletters you may have. We will also be posting on our social media accounts so please share if you are able to.

Whilst we are aware of the pressures many of us are facing now and in the coming months, your feedback will help to make more informed decisions for the next financial year.

Many thanks for your support to share this consultation.

SOMERSET DAY 2025

Welcome to the Flood Warden Autumn Newsletter 2024

November marks the bicentennial of the great gale of 1824, where hurricane force winds and a storm surge caused significant impacts and loss of life along the South coast. It was an extreme and rare event, and based on the levels reached, we calculate that it has a likelihood of recurrence of 1 in 10,000 each year (0.01% chance).

Dorset Coast Forum are working in collaboration with Environment Agency and BCP Council to bring together a free public exhibition that explores the impacts The Great Gale of 1824 left on the Dorset Coast. For more information, see <https://www.dorsetcoast.com/great-gale/>.

Our ability to predict severe weather has come on leaps and bounds since 1824, and there's no doubt that many lives have been saved by early warnings since then. September has demonstrated how important this is, with extreme events happening around the world. The cost in lives and damage is still being counted from Storm Boris in Europe, Typhoon Yagi in Asia, and Hurricanes Helene and Milton in North America; Nigeria is experiencing a major humanitarian crisis, with as many as two million people displaced by record rainfall.

Most commonly when records are broken, it is through an incremental increase. But we are increasingly seeing records being 'smashed' – for example, in Austria's recent floods, new records were twice as high as previous ones. "To see records being broken by such large margins, that is really the fingerprint of climate change," said Friederike Otto, climatologist at Imperial College London. We need to be more prepared than ever for these extreme events.

In this world of increased flood risk, the systems and processes in place for forecasting and planning for flooding events are crucial. We work with our partners through Local Resilience Forums to alert and inform individual homes, communities, businesses and partner organisations about flood risk. We provide flood risk mapping for long term planning, and the Flood Warning service and River Level service give real time information about flood impacts.

We'll look in more detail at these services, as well as Met Office warnings, in this issue of the Flood Wessex newsletter. We also have news about upcoming resilience events and partner projects, as well as the usual water situation report.

The Environment Agency's Flood Warning Service (FWS)

As flood wardens, community leaders, and trusted messengers, your knowledge about flood warnings is critical in helping the wider community understand potential impacts.

Creating a system that can warn about different types of flood risk is a complex task – warnings need to be delivered with as much lead time as possible, but also with as much certainty as possible to avoid false alarms. The Flood Resilience Team look after the Flood Warning Service and are responsible for setting procedures and trigger levels. You can help make warnings as accurate as possible by reporting flooding. If you feel warnings are being issued too often or not often enough, provide your feedback to the local office at wessexenquiries@environment-agency.gov.uk.

We have a team of Flood Warning Duty Officers (FWDOs) on duty 24/7, 365 days a year, monitoring weather forecasts and levels, and issuing alerts and warnings according to expected impacts. There are three levels of warning: Alert, Warning and Severe Warning.

Flood Alerts

For river flooding, a flood alert area covers a cluster of river catchments that respond in a similar way to rainfall in the same geographical area. Alerts are usually based on a forecast, so our systems use rainfall totals to forecast how much a river may respond rather than being based on a river level being reached. Coastal flood alerts are 100% forecast led. A coastal flood alert area contains a stretch of the coastline; the trigger is based on a combination of forecast tide and wave height, wind speed and direction.

A flood alert is issued when flooding is possible, and you should prepare now. It is based on low flood impacts, for example bank-full conditions, floodplain inundation, flooding of low-lying land, minor roads and farmland for rivers, or in coastal areas, spray and wave overtopping, and minor road or surface water flooding linked to tidal flooding.

We aim to issue flood alerts during waking hours (0600-2100) so customers can take any necessary actions and aren't woken up in the night for this lower level of warning. We aim for a lead time between 2 and 12 hours before flooding for rivers, or 4 to 6 hours for coastal flood risk, although we may issue a message the day before a tide is expected to reach flood alert level, or where levels are forecast to be reached in the evening or overnight.

With a forecast-led flood warning service, there are times where we receive a different amount of rainfall than expected, or wind speed and/or direction changes in the lead up to high tide. This can mean the rivers respond less than anticipated, or expected flood levels on the coast are not reached. For coastal areas, we may receive an updated forecast which triggers the flood alert, but provides less than 4-6 hours lead time.

Flood Warnings

A river flood warning area either extends from an upstream location to a downstream location, or is community based. A coastal flood warning area is community based, and as with alerts, coastal warnings are forecast led.

Flood warnings are issued when flooding is expected, and you should take action now. They are based on high flood impacts, such as flooding to property and disruption to major roads and infrastructure. For rivers, we aim to typically give 2 hours lead time to communities, which means there should be 2 hours between receiving a flood warning message and the first property to flood. However, in rapid response catchments the lead time may be as little as 30 minutes. We aim to give around 4-6 hours lead time to communities at coastal flood risk, although this can be more as we often issue a message in the afternoon prior to an evening's tide that is forecast to reach flood warning level, and the following morning's tide that is also due to reach flood warning level.

As with alerts, the parameters which are used to forecast a coastal flood warning such as wind speed and/or direction may change in the lead up to high tide, which can mean a flood warning may be issued with less than 4-6 hours lead time.

Severe Flood Warnings

Severe flood warnings can be issued to the same area as a flood warning area, and mean that flooding could cause danger to life and/or significant disruption to communities, and you must act now. A severe flood warning could be accompanied by an Emergency Alert, which is a government service to warn of a danger to life nearby. In an emergency your mobile phone will receive an alert with advice on how to stay safe.

For severe flood warning for rivers, the decision to issue can be informed by on the ground feedback of the flood impacts. However, for coastal locations, a severe flood warning will be based on a forecast, which as previously mentioned can change, so there may be very little lead time from receiving a message and the time of high tide.

Groundwater Flood Warnings

Flooding from groundwater can happen when the level of water within the rock or soil that makes up the land surface (known as the water table) rises. The level of the water table changes with the seasons due to variations in long term rainfall and water abstraction. When the water table rises and reaches ground level, water starts to emerge at spring lines, and flooding can happen. In Wessex, areas with an underlining chalk geology are most at risk from groundwater flooding, which mainly affects communities in Dorset, Hampshire and Wiltshire.

Lead local flood authorities (the unitary or County Council) are responsible for managing the risk of flooding from groundwater. The Environment Agency has a strategic overview for all sources of flooding including groundwater. This means we provide support to other risk management authorities and in some areas, like Wessex, provide a groundwater flood warning service.

The groundwater flood warning service has several different levels, much like the Fluvial and Coastal services, with both Flood Alerts and Flood Warnings issued for groundwater. Groundwater flood alerts are issued when flooding is possible, and that you should prepare for possible flooding. In the case of groundwater this could be to ensure that property level protection measures, such as pumps, are in good working order and set up ready for use.

Groundwater flood warnings are issued when flooding is expected, indicating that action should be taken now. It is likely that, along with property flooding, roads will be become flooded or even impassable. Consider planning alternate routes if you know roads are liable to flooding.

Groundwater levels are monitored on a daily basis using a network of boreholes across Wessex. We often see a response in groundwater levels several days after heavy rainfall, as it can take a while for rainfall to percolate down into the water table.

The Next Warning Service (NWS)

The Next Warning Service (NWS) is an Environment Agency project to build a replacement Flood Warning System, to future proof this essential public digital service for the next 10 years. So, what is the NWS?

- The NWS will achieve the same results as the Flood Warning System (FWS) with a fresh new user experience.
- NWS will offer the same reliable and effective functionality as FWS, but we will work closely with those users that receive our warnings to improve the messages and inspire more people to take action.
- NWS will continue to send direct messages as a telephone call, text message and email message.
- NWS will continue to provide information to our Floodline telephone service and our Check for flooding pages on GOV.uk
- Our assisted non-digital registration process will go through our Floodline telephone service or via our local Flood Resilience teams.

- Some improvements to the sign up to flood warning process on GOV.uk will include more choice over the type of message a customer can receive, new map features to locate places of interest and more choice over which locations they want to receive warnings for. The number of contacts to receive our messages on will also increase.

The project team are keen to receive feedback from future users of the NWS so please contact us if you would like to participate in any potential user research at floodwessex@environment-agency.gov.uk

Met Office Severe Weather Warnings

The Met Office issues weather warnings, which warn of impacts caused by severe weather.

They provide warnings up to seven days ahead for rain, thunderstorms, wind, snow, lightning, ice, extreme heat and fog and warnings can be issued at any time, day or night.

Each warning will contain the following sections:

- Headline – a short weather headline, which states what weather type, is forecast
- What to expect – details on the types of impact forecast and an indication of how likely those impacts are
- What should I do – this section links to advice and guidance from our partners on how to stay safe in severe weather
- Further details – additional information on the forecast weather.

These warnings are given a colour (yellow, amber or red) depending on a combination of both the impact the weather may have and the likelihood of those impacts occurring.

Yellow and Amber warnings represent a range of impact levels and likelihoods. This means it is important to read each warning to know what level of impact you can expect for your chosen warning area – and how likely those impacts are to occur.

The combination of impact and likelihood is shown in a matrix, which can be seen in the Further Details section of the warnings.

The Great Gale Commemoration Exhibition

On the night of 22nd November 1824, a storm of unprecedented ferocity hit the Dorset coast, flooding many houses, destroying villages in its path and claiming many lives during the two days that it besieged the coast. Now, 200 years on, Dorset Coast Forum in collaboration with the Environment Agency and BCP council bring together a free public exhibition that explores the impacts The Great Gale of 1824 left on the Dorset Coast.

The exhibition will feature personal stories and accounts from 1824, delve into the reasons behind the storm and discuss how we can predict and prepare for possible similar future events. The free exhibition starts at Weymouth Library on Friday 25th October, and travels across 5 locations on the Dorset coast including Lyme Regis, West Bay, and Poole, ending on Portland on 24th November. The village of Chiswell, Portland was partly demolished by the hurricane-force storm and 25 lives were lost during the storm. To commemorate those affected, Dorset Coast Forum are working with Portland based arts company, B-side, to bring a host of events on Portland. For further information, dates and venues for the exhibition please visit www.dorsetcoast.com/great-gale/

Flood Action Week 2024

Did you know that 14-20 October is 'Flood Action Week'?

This year's awareness campaign coincides with the one-year anniversary of Storm Babet, which brought significant flooding across the country. As climate change brings more extreme weather, there has already been flooding this autumn. This follows the wettest 18 months on record in England up to February 2024.

This campaign is all about showing people that they can easily take a few steps to reduce the devastation caused by floods to their homes and businesses, with around 5.5 million properties in England at risk from flooding. Recent data suggests that nearly half the country is unsure of how to find information on local flood risks, making this campaign all the more important.

The best way to protect yourself from flooding is early preparation and knowing what to do in advance. You can help raise awareness of some of the actions people can take to reduce the dangers:

- Check your long-term flood risk. You can use this free service to find out the long-term flood risk for an area in England, the possible causes of flooding, and how to manage flood risk.
- Sign up for flood warnings by phone, text or email
- Take steps to protect yourself from future flooding – including storing important documents in a secure, waterproof location, taking rugs and small furniture upstairs, checking how to turn off your electricity and water, preparing a flood kit.
- Explore longer-term Property Flood Resilience measures (PFR) to protect homes and businesses.

Environment Agency Recovery Work

Following flooding, depending on the scale and nature of a flood, the Environment Agency will sometimes set out a Recovery and Preparedness Programme to focus on the impacts and coordinate our recovery activity. Following the widespread flooding in Wessex in Winter 22/23, a programme and team for recovery was set out from April 2023. This programme was extended following summer flash flooding and the flooding across Wessex in Winter 23/24.

Our recovery programme came to an end this month and remaining work was handed over to our usual teams. You can see a summary of some of the work that's been carried out since April 2023 in the infographic above. There are some remaining recovery projects which are still ongoing such as bank repairs on the River Parrett and repairs to flood gates in Portland and West Bay.

Rural Flood Resilience Partnership

With rural communities increasingly on the frontline of extreme weather and the devastating impacts of flooding, a unique partnership has been launched to support rural flood resilience and help farmers and communities adapt to a changing climate. The partnership has published its work plan for 2024 to 2026.

Partner Updates

Dorset Rural Run-off Project

Dorset Council's Flood Risk Management team with support from the Farming and Wildlife Advisory Group (FWAG) are engaging agricultural landowners in discussions about sustainable land drainage management practices. The primary focus is to reduce surface water and sediment runoff, which can lead to increased flooding risks in surrounding communities. By bringing together these stakeholders, with funding secured over a three-year period the initiative aims to explore more environmentally friendly approaches that balance agricultural productivity with environmental protection.

A key part of these discussions revolves around the implementation of nature-based interventions, such as creating buffer zones, planting cover crops, slowing flow, changing farm practices, and restoring wetlands. These measures not only help absorb and slow down excess water but also improve soil health and biodiversity. By reducing the volume and speed of water runoff, these interventions play a crucial role in mitigating flood risks, ensuring that both farmers and communities benefit from a more resilient and sustainable landscape.

Somerset Rivers Authority Annual Report

Hundreds of places across Somerset are included in the newly published Somerset Rivers Authority (SRA) Annual Report 2023-24, all sites where the SRA funded works to reduce the risks and impacts of flooding.

The report describes a wide range of schemes and activities, right down to individual streets, streams, fields and culverts.

In his foreword to the report, the SRA Chair, Councillor Mike Stanton, notes that “2023-24 showed climate change intensifying flooding problems across our county, lashing with more force and unpredictability.”

Of particular interest to flood wardens may be the report’s Building Local Resilience section. This highlights grants awarded for equipment and training, the design and installation of localised flood warning systems, plus numerous sessions about emergency preparedness, tailored by the SRA’s community engagement officers to specific local flood risks and concerns. As Councillor Stanton mentions, the SRA is also planning to trial a small grants scheme for Somerset communities.

Climate Adaptation Plans continue to rollout for communities with Somerset Wildlife Trust

The impacts of the climate emergency are already unfolding. As well as rising sea levels, Somerset is likely to experience more flooding, extreme heat, droughts and wildfires. Thankfully, there are many ways that communities can act together to be better prepared for the changes and build a positive future where people and nature can thrive.

Funded by the Somerset Rivers Authority, Somerset Wildlife Trust (SWT) has been raising awareness of adaptation and encouraging communities across the county to develop Climate Adaptation Plans! This plan shares the key priorities and adaptation actions chosen by the community, such as adapting to flood risks, and offers advice on how to make these actions happen.

With a successful August launch in Glastonbury, SWT are now starting the Act to Adapt process in more communities, including Martock and the surrounding area, Spaxton, and Wells.

If you are a local to Wells, come join us at our two upcoming events:

Water Situation Report

Water Situation Report – June, July and August 2024

Flood alerts and warnings issued in total, across Wessex, for June, July, August and September 2024:

2024	June	July	August	September
Flood Alert
Fluvial	0	1	0	29
Tidal	0	0	18	15
Groundwater S Wessex	0	0	0	3
Flood Warning
Fluvial	0	0	0	28
Tidal	0	0	0	2
Groundwater S Wessex	0	0	0	0
Severe Flood Warning

Totals	0	1	18	77

In June, an average of 21mm of rain fell across Wessex in June (35% of the LTA) with 77% of the monthly total rainfall, falling on just three days, June 15 to 18. The low levels of rainfall made it the 16th driest June since our records began in 1871. The majority of areas across Wessex recorded a range in soil moisture deficit (SMD) of 41-70mm. In terms of river flows, most sites to the north and west of Wessex reported normal flows in June 2024. The sites within the chalk aquifer reported above normal and notably high flows in line with groundwater levels. The groundwater levels varied across Wessex in June from normal to exceptionally high. In Dorset the levels were mainly notably/exceptional high, whereas in Wiltshire levels were mainly above normal. Reservoir levels in Wessex decreased over the month of June, with Wessex Water reporting reservoirs at approximately 89% capacity by the end of the month, which is similar to this time last year. Bristol Water reported reservoirs levels at approximately 86% capacity by the end of June, which is also similar to this time last year.

In July , an average of 79mm of rain fell across Wessex in July (151% of the LTA). Recorded monthly rainfall ranged from 115% to 221% of the July LTA with the lowest relative rainfall recorded in the Mendips and River Chew and the highest in the West Dorset Streams. In total, 61% of the month's total rainfall fell between 5 July and 8 July. SMD in Wessex initially decreased for the first couple of weeks of July, before increasing again for the remainder of the month. In July, the majority of river flows to the north and west of Wessex reported normal or above normal mean monthly flows. Groundwater levels at the end of July varied between normal and exceptionally high across Wessex. Reservoir levels in Wessex continued to decrease throughout July. At the end of the month, Wessex Water reported reservoirs at approximately 76% capacity which is very similar to this time last year. Bristol Water reported reservoir levels of approximately 75% capacity at the end of July which is approximately 5% lower than this time last year.

In August, an average of 44mm of rain fell across Wessex in August (67% of the LTA). Recorded monthly rainfall ranged from 21% to 92% of the August LTA. SMD in Wessex continued to increase for the majority of August, before beginning to decrease towards the end of the month in response to rainfall. In August, river flow to the northwest of Wessex largely reported below normal monthly mean flows, most sites recorded flows peaking around 24 August following three days of high rainfall. Groundwater levels at the end of August varied between normal and notably high across Wessex, the two most southern sites Kingston Russell Road and Delcombe recorded above normal levels, whereas most of the northern sites recorded normal levels at the end of August. Reservoir levels in Wessex continued to decrease throughout August. At the end of the month, Wessex Water reported reservoirs at approximately 63% capacity which is approximately 6% lower than this time last year. Bristol Water reservoir levels were approximately 61% capacity at the end of August which is approximately 16% lower than this time last year.

Over the past 12 months, almost all of Wessex received exceptionally high rainfall due to the wet winter and spring. This has been the second wettest 12-month period (September to August) since records began in 1871.

Somerset Council Report

Ash Parish Council 8th October 2024

Somerset News

1.1 - Take part in the 2024 Resident Survey

Somerset Council has launched a new consultation to ask local people for their views on where they live and the services the council provides.

The 2024 Resident Survey should take no more than 10 minutes to complete and the results will be used measure progress against Somerset's priorities and shape future services.

Cllr Bill Revans, Leader of Somerset Council, said "We set out to be a listening council and are proud of our record of taking on board the views of our residents before setting policy and making decisions." "This is the first Residents Survey since Somerset Council began in April 2023 so please do take a few minutes to take part and have your say. The results will help us understand how we are meeting your needs, which is really important as we aim to improve in the future."

You can take part in the Residents Survey online. Paper copies can also be printed on request at Somerset libraries.

The Residents Survey closes on Monday 21 October.

1.2 - Apply for Pension Credit

As you will have heard, the Government is making cuts to the Winter Fuel Payment so it will now be a means tested benefit. To qualify for the Winter Fuel Payment this winter, you will need to be in receipt of Pension Credits. If you are over the state pension age (or know someone who is) please make sure you check your (or their) eligibility for pension credits to secure the Winter Fuel Payment which can be worth up to £300 per household. Check your eligibility here Pension Credit Eligibility

1.3 - Yeovil Literary Festival

The summer festival season may be over but as nights draw in, Somerset residents can look forward to Yeovil Literary Festival in October.

The festival will feature well-known literary figures, celebrities, and exciting new writers at events spread over two weekends, the first at Somerset Council's Yeovil Library, followed by Westlands Entertainment Venue.

The full-up line for the festival has now been revealed, and includes Ian Rankin, Kaleb Cooper, of Clarkson's Farm fame, former MP and Cabinet Minister Alan Johnson, gardening expert Carol Klein, Fern Britton, plus many more.

The festival has gone from strength to strength over the years and welcomed even more inspirational artists and authors to Somerset, giving residents the chance to meet the authors and get an insight into their work.

Councillor Federica Smith-Roberts, Somerset Council's Executive member with responsibilities for libraries said: "We are delighted to be celebrating Yeovil Literary Festival which has grown in size and popularity. Events like these provide residents with access to arts and culture without having to travel to further afield.

"I attended the wider event last year and listened to some brilliant authors, this year there is a great line up, there really is something for everyone. We look forward to welcoming you at Yeovil Library."

For further information on the full Yeovil Literary Festival 2024 programme and to book tickets, please visit: www.yeovilliteraryfestival.co.uk

1.4 - Supporting Somerset's unpaid carers

The vital role of Somerset's unpaid carers has been highlighted following a successful information day.

'Unpaid carers' is the term used for anyone who provides unpaid help and support for others. It is estimated there are 50,000 unpaid carers in Somerset, and many are not aware they are eligible for support.

The event, run by Somerset Council and the Community Council for Somerset who delivers the Carers Service in the county, was held at Wellsprings Community Church in Taunton on Monday 9 September and included representatives from Devon and Somerset Fire Rescue Service, Citizen's Advice, Healthwatch Somerset, Community Council for Somerset, Village Agents and more.

Unpaid carers could visit a variety of stalls and demonstrations all designed to help with their caring role. This included information about helpful technology and equipment, manual handling techniques to prevent injuries and strains, and emotional and mental health support from local groups.

Councillor Sarah Wakefield, Lead Member for Adult Services, Housing and Homelessness at Somerset Council, said:

“Unpaid carers play a vital role in our communities. Not only do they offer a tremendous contribution to the lives of those they care for, but they also contribute to the health and wellbeing of the wider communities where they live and work.”

“I am very pleased to know that people in the community have come together at the event at the Wellsprings Community Centre, and this of course fits in with our Commitment to Carers 2024 report. It is also a reflection of how determined we are in Somerset to support each other.”

“We know that sometimes people who support a friend or family member don't necessarily consider themselves to be a carer and so often aren't aware of the organisations and services on their doorstep that can help. This Information Day was a great opportunity to get out into the community and help bridge that knowledge gap.”

“It was a fantastic example of working together to connect people with the resources and support that can make a significant impact in their day to day lives.”

In March 2024, Somerset Council published its Commitment to Carers 2024 report which recognises the invaluable contribution and challenges faced by unpaid carers. The report was co-written by unpaid carers, the NHS and local charities and sets out the vision for Somerset with aims to enhance the quality of life for carers and those they care for. The report can be read online here.

1.5 - Somerset Council reveals recycling and reuse results

Somerset Council has published their latest reuse and recycling results, showing reuse is on the increase and landfill at a record low.

Somerset's recycling rate of 56% puts it in the top 20% of waste authorities in England.

This year (2023/24), saw 2,300 tonnes reused, an increase of almost 400 tonnes. This includes smart tech collected via the Fixy project, furniture and bric-a-brac donated to furniture reuse groups and reusable textiles collected from the kerbside and via recycling sites.

Reusing items, for example, mobile phones, furniture or bicycles; is more environmentally friendly than recycling as it removes the need for items to be broken down, processed and made into something new.

The amount of waste going to landfill, 5,500 tonnes, is a record low and nearly 96% of the 145,000 tonnes of recycling materials collected stayed in the UK (54% in Somerset), to be turned into new products and packaging. Councillor Richard Wilkins, Executive Member for Transport and Waste Services said: “We're committed to sharing what happens to our resident's waste. “This is the sixteenth year of publishing our recycling and reuse results and wherever possible we recycle waste as close to home as we can.” “Together we've saved an extra 5,493 tonnes of carbon compared to last year – the equivalent of taking an additional 2,113 cars off the road for a year.”

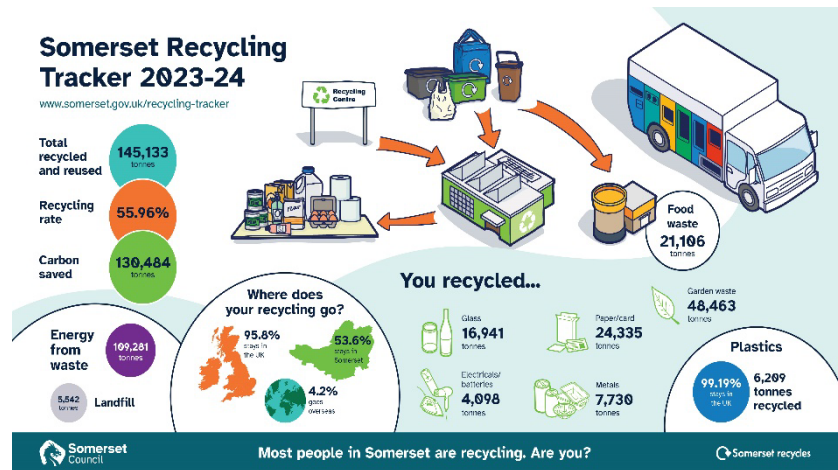

Other key figures include:

- 130,484 tonnes of carbon has been saved through recycling the materials collected at the kerbside and at recycling sites, equivalent to taking 50,000 cars off the road for a year.
- 21,106 tonnes of food waste was collected – all of which stays in Somerset, going to an anaerobic digestion plant to be turned into biofertilizer to be used on agricultural land and biogas.
- 48,463 tonnes of garden waste was collected – all of which stays in Somerset, going to Walpole, Dimmer and Priorswood to be composted, ready for use on gardens and farms.

- Somerset's recycling rate is 56%, higher than England's average of 43%.

Publishing what happens after each tonne of waste is collected shows that the reprocessing companies used are legitimate – no recycling is burned, dumped or ends up in the ocean. Recycling in Somerset could become anything from cardboard boxes and plastic pipes to soil conditioner and car parts. The full recycling results can be viewed online at:

All 16 of Somerset Council's recycling sites will soon revert to their autumn/winter opening schedule. 1.8 - Have your say on funding and provision for children with additional needs

Somerset residents are asked to have their say on the way services for children with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND) are funded.

Somerset Council is launching a consultation today (September 9th), asking for the public's views on proposals which aim to ensure provision for children with additional needs can secure better outcomes and experiences for children, families, and schools fairly and efficiently.

The current system for supporting children with SEND is under pressure both nationally and in Somerset, with rising costs and situations arising where children's needs are not being met as quickly as anyone would want, and where arrangements are not having the impact that they should.

Somerset Council is seeking views on seven proposals which aim to make improvements in key areas including funding and support, inclusive education, and annual planning.

No decisions will be made until the consultation has closed and the responses have been reviewed. This will then inform a full business case, which will go through democratic decision making later this year.

Councillor Heather Shearer, Executive Lead Member for Children, Families & Education at Somerset Council said: "At Somerset Council, we are dedicated to creating an educational environment where every child, regardless of their needs, can thrive. This consultation is a crucial step in ensuring that our funding and support systems are fair and effective. We encourage everyone to participate and share their views to help us shape a more inclusive future for all our children."

The consultation runs until Friday 18th October and the results will be published as part of the papers ahead of Scrutiny Children & Families and Executive in November 2024.

A paper copy of the consultation can be viewed, or printed on request, at Bridgwater, Taunton, Shepton Mallet and Yeovil Libraries.
